

ISO 19600:2014
ISO 37301:2021

MIGRATION FROM ISO 19600:2014
TO ISO 37301:2021 CERTIFICATIONS

With the publication of ISO 37301:2021, the ISO 19600:2014 standard has been withdrawn, since ISO 37301 has replaced ISO 19600.

Considering this, ISO 19600 certified individuals who want to migrate to an ISO 37301 certification will have six months to do so, until October 29, 2021.

Here are some important dates around this migration process:

- 2021-04-13 – The ISO 19600:2014 standard was withdrawn.
- 2021-04-13 – The ISO 37301:2021 standard has been released.
- 2021-04-19 – PECB no longer offers ISO 19600:2014 training courses, exams, and certifications.
- 2021-05-07 – PECB will launch the ISO 37301 Lead Implementer, Lead Auditor, Foundation, Introduction, and Transition training courses.
- 2021-10-29 – Expiration date for ISO 19600 personnel certifications (End of the migration period)

Initial certification

As of 2021-04-19 PECB will no longer certify individuals against ISO 19600.

Recertification

As of 2021-04-19 PECB will not recertify individuals against ISO 19600.

How to migrate to an ISO 37301 certification?

Since PECB ISO 19600 Certifications will become obsolete in October 29, 2021, all certified individuals will have the opportunity to go through the PECB ISO 37301 transition training course and exam, and if they pass the exam, they will be able to apply for the respective ISO 37301 Certification (Senior Lead Implementer, Lead Implementer, Implementer, Provisional Implementer or Foundation).
